ENGINEERS TEST LIGHTING SYSTEMS

Experiment Station Here Determines Best Method for Suburban Homes.

PRIVATE PLANT FOR FARM

Comparison of Acetylene, Electric and Gasoline Lights Made.

Students in the School of Engineering, under the direction of the experiment station, are testing the efficiency of a private electric lighting system for suburban homes. They believe that a small system of electric lights, which will give light 955 nights in the year, can be installed at small cost and be operated with little attention and expense. They are working with the view of making an electric lighting system that will give to the owner on the farm, who knows nothing of electricity and its operation, a system of lights as valuable as any city man possesses.

For power they use kerosene, gasoline or denatured alcohol. They say they are more sure of success with either of the last two.

Two seniors, H. L. Andrews and J. V. Starnes, are assisting in the work, which is directed by J. D. Bowles, an research assistant. Mr. Bowles is working on a thesis, "A Comparison of Electric, Acetylene and Gasoline Lighting Systems." With one of these three he hopes to construct a model home lighting plant.

"This work of testing lighting systems," said Mr. Bowles yesterday, "takes lots of time. We have to try it so many hours this way, or that way, you know. Last night we worked until a bright and we will work late tonight. We are glad to show and explain our plans to anyone interested in private lighting systems."

MONILAW IS DISCONTENTED

Coach Says Track Team Will Have to "Wake Up."

Dr. W. L. Monilaw, track coach, isn't happy. With the meet with Kansas only three weeks off, many of the track stars, he says, are indisposed, lazy or lax. "The spring fever,"

"The men are showing the worst spirit I have seen since I have been here," said Dr. Monilaw today and he didn't smile. "They act as if they didn't care, and it is hard to get any work out of them. One reason for this, I think, is that they do not take Kansas seriously. We have won from them so often that the men get overconfident and think that we shall win as usual. They will have to do better than they have been doing if they expect to win this year." The meet will be held May 21 in Columbia.

Warren Roberts, who won the shot put from Kansas last year, was out for the first time yesterday. When in condition he will be able to heave the ball 38 or 39 feet. His coming out will help Missouri's chances because the Anderson brothers are not in condition owing to their recent attack of measles. The best that they are able to do now is 34 feet. They usually put the shot 40 feet.

P. D. Porter, a fast half-miler, has been declared ineligible. He is a special student. W. C. Bradley, a sprinter, has also been declared ineligible on account of his school work.
